RECOGNITIONS

Lee Weishar of Falmouth was honored by the American Shore and Beach Preservation Association as its member of the year for 2011.

As a scientist and coastal engineer for the Falmouth-based Woods Hole Group, Weishar was recognized for his contributions to the Association.

Weishar served as chairman of the association’s committee that named the “Best Restored Beaches” for 2011 and 2012.

LEE WEISHAR

In this position, he helped compile a look at the future of coastal engineering in the United States. He also assisted in organizing the National Coastal Conference.

Weishar has over 25 years experience in the fields of oceanography, coastal engineering, sediment transport and near-shore processes.

He has been with the Woods Hole Group since 1989, and prior to that was with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. He received his doctorate in physical oceanography from Purdue University in Indiana.
